PENNSYLVANIA APPLICANTS: Any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud any insurance company or other person files an application for insurance or statement of claim containing any materially false information, or conceals for the purpose of misleading, information concerning any fact material thereto, commits a fraudulent insurance act, which is a crime and subjects such person to criminal and civil penalties.

PUERTO RICO APPLICANTS: Any person who knowingly and with the intent to defraud, presents false information in an insurance request form, or who presents, helps or has presented a fraudulent claim for the payment of a loss or other benefit, or presents more than one claim for the same damage or loss, will incur a felony, and upon conviction will be penalized for each violation with a fine of no less than five thousand dollars ($5,000) no more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000); or imprisonment for a fixed term of three (3) years, or both penalties. If aggravated circumstances prevail, the fixed established imprisonment may be increased to a maximum of five (5) years; if attenuating circumstances prevail, it may be reduced to a minimum of two (2) years.

SIGNATURE AND AUTHORIZATION

The undersigned, as authorized agent of all individuals and entities proposed for this insurance, declares that, to the best of his/her knowledge and belief, after reasonable inquiry, the statements in this Application and any attachments or information submitted with this Application (together referred to as the "Application") are true and complete. For Florida accounts, the preceding sentence is replaced with the following: The undersigned, as authorized agent of all individuals and entities proposed for this insurance, represents that, to the best of his/her knowledge and belief, after reasonable inquiry, the statements in this Application and any attachments or information submitted with this Application (together referred to as the "Application") are true and complete. The information in this Application is material to the risk accepted by us. If a policy is issued it will be in reliance upon the Application, and the Application will be the basis of the contract.

We will maintain the information contained in and submitted with this Application on file and along with the Application will be considered physically attached to, part of, and incorporated into the policy, if issued. For North Carolina, Utah and Wisconsin accounts, this Application and the materials submitted with it shall become part of the policy, if issued, if attached to the policy at issuance.

We are authorized to make any inquiry in connection with this Application. Our acceptance of this Application or the making of any subsequent inquiry does not bind you or us to complete the insurance or issue a policy. The information provided in this Application is for underwriting purposes only and does not constitute notice to us under any policy of a Claim or potential Claim.

If the information in this Application materially changes prior to the effective date of the policy, you must notify us immediately and we may modify or withdraw any quotation or agreement to bind insurance.

NOTICE TO NEW YORK APPLICANTS: Any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud any insurance company or other person files an application for insurance or statement of claim containing any materially false information, or conceals for the purpose of misleading, information concerning any fact material thereto, commits a fraudulent insurance act, which is a crime and shall also be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed five thousand dollars and the stated value of the claim for each such violation.
